Rev. Floyd S. Kanyon, rector of Christ church, West Haven, was the preacher at the union service of Tringty and Christ Episcopic and the path I travel."

Christ realised his own power, feeling the path I travel."

Christ realised his own power, feeling the path I travel."

Christ realised his own power, feeling that the latter edited by the path I travel.

Christ realised his own power, feeling that God was in His soul. He knew hat His father had sent Him to do a great work in the world and he knew that the world and he knew that the stater would not have shall be mocked and scourged and shall be put to death, but He shall rise again." The question comes to each one of us, "whither are we drifting?" Christ had before Him the vision of His own like. He believed in His ewn destiny and this is perhaps the greatest need of every soul. We need to have a clear vision of our own life and to believe in our own destiny. He knew what He had come to accomplish and also realised the great thistory of how man and nations met crises and opportunities, those big events. The Hible flagh the complish and also realised the great thistory of how man and nations met crises and opportunities. The wise man is the man who, realising these things, has before him.

We too are players on this great stage of the: we too are marching a clear vision of the future of His life unreveled before Him.

The wise man says: "I go up to the Jerusalem of His; we too are marching as a christ saw, the whole future of His life unreveled before Him.

The wise man says: "I go up to the Jerusalem of my life and I shall be mocked and scourged and my best friends will desert me; the world will crish me to the very bottom of the put the life again. Man cannot crush me to the very bottom of the put the path I travel."

Let us know that we do will be served he had seen the Jerusalem of my life and I shall be mocked and scourged and my best friends will desert me; the world will crish me to the very soul. We follow our parents towards Jerusalem of my life and I

Haviland Friswell Bliven Smith

It's Rumored That President Wilson Has Hired the Griswold Place.

President Wilson will be very busy this summer, so he will not be able to spend much of the summer at any one place, but Mrs. Wilson and daughters probably will stay all summer at whatever place the president selects for his home. Lyme is anticipating entertaining Mrs. Wilson and her daughters during the summer.

President Wilson will have the extra seesion of congress to keep him busy

The Griswold home is the typical Connecticut colonial home with lofty pillars, wide staircases and an old-fashioned garden. Artists have put up litale bungalows in the big garden and the panels of the dinig room have long since lost their original colors and are covered with sketches in oil and pencil

FORGER GRIMMELL NOW FACES LIFE SENTENCE

Cure Him of Crime.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 20.—Edward Grimmell, the forger who obtained a pardon and release from Dannemora prison two years ago by submitting to a surgical operation on his skull, which allenists believed would cure him of criminal tendencies, was today convicted of burglary in the third degree. Sentence will be imposed Saturday. With three previous convictions for felony against him, Grimmell now faces a life term.

For two years following his release from Dansemora Grimmell is said to have led an exemplary life.

NOT A TWINGE OF RHEUMATISM SINCE TAKING RHEUMA

"I suffered from Rheumatism for six years; tried different doctors, with no relief. I saw your advertisement and decided to try RHEUMA. I have taken three bottles and am entirely free from the disease. I was so bad I could not sleep nights; now I sleep well, and my kidneys work perfectly."—P. W. Miller, Catawissa, Pa.

"For 14 months I was so badly afflicted with Rheumatism that much of the ..me I was obliged to use a cane. I used one bottle of RHEUMA and THE CANE IS IN THE CORNER NOW. No one could be happier to be rid of the pain, swollen knees and badly swollen ankles. I certainly believe there is no remedy for the disease like neiteuma.—Mrs. Daniel S. Knox, Severance, N. Y., Aug. 8, 1912.

SHOT BY MAN WHO

BROKE UP HIS HOME Merchant of President-elect Wilson's Birthplace May Die.

Sanunton, Va., Feb. 20.—Luther B. Bosserman, a merchant here, lies in a critical condition in a hospital tonight as the result of bullet wounds inflicted by A. D. Worth, a hotel clerk. Returning to his home today Bosserman found Worth in the company of his wife. When he saw Bosserman. Worth drew a revolver and fired four shots, two of them taking effect. Worth was arrested, as was Mrs. Bosserman, the latter as an accessory.

Last week Bosserman, in a vain endeavor to save the life of his only child, submitted to a blood transfusion operation. It is feared that owing to Bosserman's weakened condition from the loss of blood from the operation his wounds may prove fatal.
